

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

1. ACSAT follows double-blind review process.
2. The corresponding author needs to:-
 - a. Fill in JESTEC copyright transfer form, signed by all authors, and upload it to the guest editors who are responsible for the special issue.
 - b. Required to send his/her latest CV with an alternative email.
3. The corresponding author need to make sure of the number of recent references not be less than 30% of the total number of the references used in the paper. The term “recent references” means journal articles and conference papers published in the past five years.
4. The author should format the paper according to the template. The paper should contain a list of nomenclature and a list of references. Please make sure that every symbol used is clearly defined with its SI units. Also, to follow exactly the format used in the reference citation. There is a different format if the reference is a journal paper, a textbook, website, etc. All are shown in the template.
5. ACSAT uses an online database, and thus respective authors are advised to submit their papers online, by uploading them directly to: <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=acsat2021>
